Equity Profile Questionnaire

Pentathlon-scotland is committed to implementing the Equity Standard: A Framework for Sport. In order to achieve the Foundation Level of the Standard, we are required to carry out an audit to ascertain the equity profile of our members. This audit will enable us to identify any under-represented groups or potential areas in the organization and to take action to address any emerging issues.

Please be assured you will not be identified from the answers you provide and the returned questionnaires will be seen only by our administration staff. All data will be processed in line with the Data Protection Act 1998.

A separate application form should be completed by each individual applying for membership
